About the instrument

This electric guitar is a tribute to PRINCE containing some references to this unique superstar.

The instrument is covered with over 11 thousand single set purple Swarovski Crystals referring to his famous song PURPLE RAIN.

The inlay was designed by German Artist Simone Rutz. It's in art deco style and shows a lotus flower (Prince Album "Lotusflow3r") and the Prince Symbol.

It is made out of pure 18k White Gold!

The name ENDORPHINEMACHINE is taken from a Prince song.

Somewhere on the instrument is connection to another of his songs. But this is a secret which you will find out when you inspect this unique guitar very close...
