This instrument is a collaboration between Italian tapestry artist Valeria Robbiano and me. Her son - Thomas Maack - brought us together for this project.

Valeria lives on the beautiful Lake Maggiore in Italy. The theme in her tapestry artwork is the water waves of her home area.

Referring to this, I took several Photographs of sun reflections in my little village creek and arranged them in photoshop as background.

Through the guitar body you seem to recognize the tapestry artwork. You look through blurry water, so to speak. This symbolizes the connection of our cooperation.

The lines on the fingerboard are another connection of Valeria's and my home areas. The single line represents the course of the German Wine Route, the other line is the outline of Lake Maggiore.

The position of the two lines to one another was defined by a small ruby set in white gold. This Gemstone is exactly at the position of Valeria's and my house.
