This instrument is one close to my heart:

As a young boy (maybe 10 or 11 years old)
my teachers always caught me dreaming during boring schooldays.

Doing something with my hands
without noticing.

Mostly painting sketches into my schoolbooks or damaging my desktop without noticing it.

My desktop was dirty orange transparent with a lot of damages.
The desks have been very old.

My father was already in the same school –
just 40 years before.

I love playing this guitar!

It's very light and the sound is punchy and fat!
