About the instrument

I was in London a few years ago. It started to rain like crazy and I was looking for shelter in a little store downtown I just passed by accident.

It was a store specialized in vintage fabrics for upholstery.

I found this beautiful chinese gold brocade fabric which gave this instruments it's name.

The inlay is made of solid white gold. Finest quality Rubies at inlayed into the leaves of the inlay and also in the white Gold Knobs.

I have build this instrument in honor of my 20th Anniversary of instrument building.
