About the instrument

I was talking to a friend a while ago about the times we went skateboarding together, age 15-17.

We remembered the shoes we were wearing at the time: Converse Chuck Taylor All Stars.

They lasted only a few months because of the heavy damage to our shoes from skateboarding.

After a few years I got quite a collection of worn down old Chucks.

I mounted this collection on my living room ceiling. It looked like someone left tracks.

Seeing the amount of shoes I accumulated over the years, gave me the inspiration to make this instrument.

I cut out parts of the many different Chuck Taylor Models, including the 2015 Spring Collection, and made a collage on the guitar.

A big thank you to Converse for the support!
