

Vacancy at the German Jordanian University in Amman, Campus Madaba, Jordan

The German Jordanian University (GJU) is a public Jordanian university that is based on the model of German Universities of Applied Sciences. It was established in 2005 upon an agreement between the German and Jordanian governments. At present, approximately 5000 students are enrolled at GJU. All GJU bachelor students spend one year of their studies in Germany, for which they receive professional, linguistic and cultural preparation in the first three years. The "German Dimension" therefore plays a central role in all courses of study.

For the Federal Government and the Federal Ministry of Research, Technology and Space in Germany, GJU is one of their most important international higher education projects, which is funded by the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) as part of the program "Transnational Education – Promotion of Binational Universities". The University of Applied Sciences Magdeburg-Stendal is the project-governing university in Germany. It has established a project office, which works closely with GJU.

At the International Affairs Department (IAD) at GJU in Amman, Campus Madaba, the following position is vacant (starting as soon as possible)

Program Mobility Coordinator

Job Tasks:

- Coordination of mobilities, in particular the Flying Faculty Program, the Staff Mobility Program, and other program mobilities
- Regular correspondence and coordination with professors from German partner universities and with academic staff at the GJU schools
- Regular consultation and coordination with GJU Project Office at University of Applied Sciences Magdeburg-Stendal
- Participation in GJU Open Day, German/International Week, other events & conferences
- Support on other tasks as requested by the Director or Assistant Director IAD

Qualifications:

- Bachelor Degree minimum, Master preferred
- Work experience at a German university and/or a university abroad or in international organizations of at least one year
- Good knowledge of German, fluent in English, Arabic is an advantage
- Secure use of MS-Office programs
- High organizational talent
- Concise and structured work
- Confident and cultivated appearance
- Intercultural competence and resilience
- Willingness to participate in events

Remuneration for the position:

The position is remunerated at GJU with a local salary. In addition, EU citizens receive a DAAD top-up, which is contractually agreed upon with University of Applied Sciences Magdeburg-Stendal as the project-governing German institution.

Application Deadline: 28th of February 2026

Application: Please send your application in English (cover letter, CV, certificates) as one PDF file to:

International Affairs Department:

Dr. Jennifer Gronau: IAD.director@gju.edu.jo
Ms. Humda Qamar: Humda.qamar@gju.edu.jo and cc the

Human Resources Department:

HRD.Director@gju.edu.jo
Taqwa.Sawareh@gju.edu.jo