Summary

The property comprises a ground floor commercial investment arranged as a contemporary food hall concept, designed to provide multiple income streams. The accommodation includes two bar areas, a large commercial kitchen, and a series of purpose-built food kiosks, each fitted with independent plumbing and extraction. The kiosks are let on individual agreements, allowing for income diversification, flexibility of occupation, and reduced void risk.

This format provides the opportunity for active asset management, rental growth, and resilience against single-tenant exposure, making the property particularly attractive to investors seeking strong operational income from a popular leisure location. The is also the longer-term possibility to revert to a single occupancy restaurant/bar – subject to the current tenancy agreements.

Location

The property occupies a prominent position on George Street, widely regarded as the prime commercial thoroughfare within Hastings Old Town. George Street is a vibrant and characterful street, renowned for its independent bars, restaurants, cafés, antique shops and boutique retailers and is a focal point for both local residents and tourists.

The street benefits from consistently high footfall throughout the year, with particularly strong trading during weekends, seasonal events, and peak holiday periods. Hastings Old Town is a well-established visitor destination, supported by nearby attractions including the seafront, Stade area, fishing quarter, and cultural venues. The location has a proven track record for food and beverage operators, underpinning the long-term investment appeal.

The Property

The property comprises a ground floor unit arranged to include:
