

just say yes

luke 5:1-11

(verses 1-3)

(verses 4-10)

(verse 11)

transformed by the truth

questions for reflection & discussion

1. How important is it to you that your faith is “adventurous”? How important do you think it is to Jesus? In what ways is your life less adventurous now than it has the potential to be?
2. Read Luke 5:1-3. Try to remember a time when you had the opportunity to “endorse” Jesus but failed to do so. Think of another time when you took the risk of being outspoken about your faith. What were the results of those contrasting choices?
3. Read Luke 5:4-10. What is the most illogical command of Jesus you have yet to obey? Why are you playing it safe?
4. Read Luke 5:11. What is the furthest you have ventured outside your comfort zone to help change people’s lives? What affect did the depth of your commitment have on your spiritual productivity and passion?
5. Check the boxes below if (after thoughtful reflection) they express your heart and will:
 - ☐ In 2026, when Jesus asks me to endorse Him among those whose opinion of me matters, my answer will be yes.
 - ☐ In 2026, when Jesus asks me to obey Him in a way that defies common sense, my answer will be yes.
 - ☐ In 2026, when Jesus asks me to follow Him to new places to help change people’s lives, my answer will be yes.