

Call me Gomer

Hosea 1-2

When God's _____ is met by
_____, I experience _____.

- The problem is _____ than you think.
- The price is _____ than we expect.
- Transformation is _____ met by _____.
- Our old life isn't just _____; it is _____ by my new response.

Now, Gomer means _____ by the Lord.

Gomer means _____ to the Lord.

Why don't we live a transformed life?

Transformed by the Truth

Questions for Reflection & Discussion

1. What did you know about Hosea and Gomer before Sunday's message? What did you learn about them that you can relate to?
2. What would change in your life if God's initiative was met by your response rather than your resistance?
3. The Lord has taken the initiative to forgive us, set us free, and invite us into a new life—so why don't we experience authentic and lasting transformation?
4. Some of us haven't left the shadow of our past (Ephesians 4:22-24), while others have forgotten how much the Lord has done for us (Acts 26:9-16). Which of these scriptures mean the most to you, related to growing into the fullness of your identity "in Christ"?
5. What was the most important lesson you learned from Sunday's message?
