Essence

Set within the UNESCO-classified vineyard landscape of Criação Velha, one of Pico's most iconic and preserved postcard settings, Pico Island Villas 22 is the only tourism property integrated into this extraordinary territory.

Here, the silence of dry-stone walls and the ancestral geometry of the vineyards create a rare sense of authenticity. The landscape is not decorative — it is lived, structured, and protected. Every stone wall tells a story of resilience, every vineyard row reflects centuries of adaptation to volcanic soil and Atlantic winds.

Guests experience a true sense of retreat. The villa offers privacy, space, and the feeling of being completely removed from noise and distraction. The surrounding landscape unfolds slowly, inviting quiet walks, contemplation, and an immersive connection to the land.

Integrated into the certified walking trail "Vinhas da Criação Velha", the villa allows guests to step directly into a curated route through centuries-old vineyards, open ocean views, and protected UNESCO heritage, reinforcing the sensation of being deeply connected to place.

Isolated from the World, Close to What Matters

Pico Island Villas 22 remains within walking distance of some of the island's most genuine experiences.

Just a short walk away, the Laja das Rosas Natural Swimming Pools offer a serene meeting point between volcanic rock and the Atlantic Ocean. Late afternoons here are bathed in golden light, ideal for a peaceful swim or for enjoying sunset from the small bar overlooking the sea.

Nearby, the Areia Larga bathing area provides direct access to the open ocean — sought after by those who appreciate the raw energy of the Atlantic and a more elemental sea experience.

Within walking distance, the historic Solar dos Salemas welcomes guests for intimate wine tastings, offering an authentic glimpse into Pico's winemaking heritage inside a traditional island house.

Several local restaurants can also be reached on foot, allowing guests to explore Pico's gastronomy while remaining anchored in the calm rhythm of the surrounding landscape.

Here, seclusion and proximity coexist naturally, isolated from the world, yet close to what truly matters.

What our guests are saying

This is a wonderful house in front of the sea with a breathtaking view of Mount Pico. The house is very well decorated and perfectly equipped. Our stay was incredible, we were given great recommendations about the island and the team of Azoresx has helped in so many different aspects of our stay (including arranging the climb of Mount Pico and renting a car). It was a magical stay.

Place is magical you are surrounded by nature, on one side the ocean and another a magnificent Pico. The birds calling in the night, the star gazing and daily sunset views will stay with us forever. House has everything enough towels, comfortable beds and a very well equipped kitchen. Once you arrive you do not want to leave. Very responsive and helpful hosts- can help with booking island guides and tours, send them a quick message and you will get answers, suggestions, and with your ideas they'll work with you till it matches your expectations. You won't be disappointed.

Beautiful home in an absolutely stunning landscape. Our group of 3 adults immediately felt a sense of peace on the property and in the home. It is very well appointed (with all the kitchen things you could need) and the host was very helpful during our stay. We didn't want to leave and hope to return!
