

5TH & 6TH GRADE MATH TEACHER (MATERNITY LEAVE JAN - MARCH 2026)

TEACHING FACULTY

At San Jose Episcopal Day School (SJEDS), everything we do is a loving and joyful expression of our mission: to inspire a passion for learning, a life of integrity, and a heart for Christian service. Our faculty are the heart of our school, beloved by students and parents alike for their warmth, responsiveness, creativity, professionalism, and exceptional commitment to helping every child meet his or her outstanding potential. Lifelong learners themselves, our faculty model the characteristics they seek to cultivate in their students: love, wisdom, open-mindedness, responsibility, service, honesty, respect, patience, faith, and gratitude.

KEY ATTRIBUTES

We are seeking a knowledgeable and experienced 5th & 6th Grade Math Teacher to fill a 3-month Maternity Leave. The ideal candidate has experience teaching mathematics and a desire to help students learn and grow. This teacher would serve as a homeroom teacher and would collaborate with the other homeroom teacher at that grade level.

We are seeking a teacher who is:

- Committed to building strong relationships with colleagues, students, and families.
- Skilled in differentiating instruction to meet the diverse academic needs of upper elementary and middle school learners.

- Organized and confident in implementing engaging, inquiry-based, student-centered lesson plans aligned with curricular goals.
- An effective classroom manager who uses strategies that support the social-emotional well-being of students and a positive, inclusive learning environment for all.
- Rooted in their Christian faith and eager to pour that love, joy, and compassion into their teaching and classroom environment, supporting the spiritual development of students and living out the school's mission in meaningful ways.

RESPONSIBILITIES

SJEDS Faculty members

- Adhere to the school's Faculty Characteristics of Professional Excellence and the guidelines put forth in our Faculty Handbook.
- Embrace and live out the school's mission and educational philosophy.
- Demonstrate careful preparation for instruction, a commitment to utilizing best practices in teaching and learning, and effective strategies for evaluating all students' progress continuously and effectively.
- Develop and maintain a classroom atmosphere that is emotionally safe, respectful, positive, encouraging, and inclusive, using management and teaching strategies that cultivate the spiritual, social, and emotional skills and well-being of our students.
- Cultivate close-knit, trusting relationships with parents through frequent and respectful communication.
- Support the broader needs of the school community, including, but not limited to, participation in school professional development initiatives, community events, service and outreach opportunities, committee membership, parent and faculty meetings, and other commitments as requested by the Administration.
- Practice discretion and confidentiality.
- Demonstrate a lifelong commitment to remaining on the front edge of the Education (or related) field, seeking opportunities to use emerging research to inform practice, and remaining open to new approaches, techniques, and resources.
- Maintain professional credentials and/or certification.

QUALIFICATIONS

SJEDS Faculty members have

- A bachelor's degree in Education, Mathematics, or a related field
- A valid and current state teaching certification
- A proven record of excellence in teaching upper elementary or middle school math
- Strong understanding of the developmental needs of early adolescent students
- Strong verbal and written communication skills
- Strong collaboration skills
- Strong classroom management skills
- A positive, warm, and growth-minded attitude
- Cultural competence and sensitivity
- A passion for helping students grow both academically and emotionally
- A broad knowledge of educational technology applications and software
- Credentials that meet the FCIS Teaching Requirements
