Families Can't Find Affordable Child Care

FY24-25

Now is the time to expand and strengthen the community-based child care system, so families can access the care that meets their unique needs.

The system provides licensed spaces for only
1 in 4 children
with working parents³

Child care costs more than in-state college tuition
Child Care (1 child): $22,168/year
CSU East Bay In-state: $6,084/year

Child Care (2 children): $46,566/year = 36% of their income

100,131 working caregivers of children under 5 in Alameda County.⁴

Alameda County
County specific data	$129,367 Median yearly income (before taxes) in Alameda County. ⁵
9,637 Available Licensed Home Spaces ⁶ 43,577 Available Licensed Center Spaces	6,411 Children are enrolled in Transitional Kindergarten (TK) ⁷ TK expansion reduced the licensed child care workforce, shrinking available supply for infants, toddlers, and families who need non-traditional hours.

The current child care system is unable to meet demand.

BANANAS
Agency specific data representing a portion of Alameda County	1,410 Families on the waitlist at BANANAS. Many are on the waitlist for years.
483 Providers available for referral	403 Licensed Providers receiving Child Care Subsidies
	761 License-Exempt Providers receiving Child Care Subsidies
	5,958 Subsidized Licensed Spaces Family Child Care Homes
	10,789 Subsidized Licensed Spaces Center-Based

Even when care is available, cost and other barriers can make it difficult for families to access care.
