October 12, 2025 – Pastor Josh Petras – Sermon 5 in our study of Titus

#1 – _____

#2 – _____

#3A – _____

#3B – _____

¹⁰For there are many rebellious men, empty talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision,

¹¹who must be silenced because they are upsetting whole families, teaching things they should not teach for the sake of dishonest gain.

¹²One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said, “Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons.”

¹³This testimony is true. For this reason reprove them severely so that they may be sound in the faith,

¹⁴not paying attention to Jewish myths and commandments of men who turn away from the truth.

¹⁵To the pure, all things are pure, but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure, but both their mind and their conscience are defiled.

¹⁶They profess to know God, but by their works they deny Him, being detestable and disobedient and unfit for any good work.

FELLOWSHIP GROUP QUESTIONS

1 – What stood out to you from our study of Titus 1:10-16?

2 – From Titus and the other cross references, what did you learn about false teachers? What are some false teachings that are prevalent today?

3 – Are you being careful to protect yourself against false teaching? If you are a husband or dad, or you protecting your family?

4 – What steps do you need to take in the truth to guard yourself (and others) against false teaching?

5 – Read Titus 2:1-2 and 1 Timothy 4:7-8. How is pursuing personal holiness a protection against false teaching? Are there specific sins / temptations your fellowship group can be praying for?

FROM October 5th SERMON

1 – Read Titus 1:5-9, 1 Timothy 3:1-7, and 1 Peter 5:1-3. How is the Bible's view of leadership / influence different from the perspective of the world? What implications does this have for your own areas of influence?

2 – What are ways you can support God's plan for leadership in the church?
