APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1 - How does 2 Kings 5 challenge the way you think about God's grace?

2 - Is there anyone (including yourself) that you're tempted to think is "too far gone" or "too unlikely" for God to save?

3 - Do you respond to challenges more like the servant girl (confidence in God) or the king (focused on limitations and fear)? Why do you think that is?

4 - What would it look like, practically, to bring God into your first response instead of your last resort?

5 - What expectations about God, life, or even Christianity are hardest for you to let go of? In what ways might pride be keeping you from fully trusting or obeying what God teaches us in His Word?
