Ephesians 4:31-32

November 1, 2026 – Pastor Josh Petras - Sermon 25 in our study of Ephesians

[31]Let all bitterness and anger and wrath and shouting and slander be put away from you, along with all malice.

[32]Instead, be kind to one another, tender-hearted, graciously forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has graciously forgiven you.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1.. What did you learn from our study of Ephesians 4:31-32? What truths specifically addressed your life?

2. Why are conflicts expected, even in the church? How can we think biblically about this reality?

3. In conflict, are you more likely to explode with anger or quietly stew with bitterness? What does this look like for you, and why are each of these wrong?

4. Read Psalm 7:1-5, James 4:1-3, and Romans 12:17-21. How do each of these passages help us battle the heart attitudes Paul calls believers to put off in Ephesians 4:31?

5. Read Ephesians 4:32. How does Paul tell us here to handle conflict? How does the Bible's instruction differ from common practice?

6. What is God's forgiveness like? Take time to meditate on your answer this question. Look up verses. How should His kindness shape our actions towards one another?

7. Is there a specific conflict you feel like you need to share with your group, an FG leader, or a pastor? Prayerfully consider if you need to ask for help this week.
