Project Details

Objective(s):

1. Determine the date of death of Samuel Rogove.
2. Determine if an estate was ever raised for Samuel Rogove.
3. Build a family tree identifying all living relatives of Samuel Rogove, who was involved in a lawsuit in the 1940s, focusing first on children, with a secondary focus on parents, siblings and nieces/nephews of Samuel Rogove, if children are not identified.

Background Information:

Personal Details

The birth date and location of Samuel Rogove, as well as the names of his parents, are currently unknown. Similarly, the date and location of his death remain unidentified. Although Samuel owned real estate in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, it is unclear if he resided or died there. The client has speculated that Philadelphia was his place of residence and possibly his place of death, but this has not been confirmed. A search of the Register of Wills of Philadelphia revealed that no estate had been opened for Samuel Rogove.

It is also unknown whether Samuel Rogove was ever married.

Search Results

The client has provided search results from Ancestry.com related to Samuel Rogove. However, they believe these records may pertain to more than one individual with the same name in Philadelphia. It is uncertain which, if any, of these results correspond to the correct Samuel Rogove.

Real Estate Ownership

Samuel Rogove owned two properties in Philadelphia:

1. 942 N. 2nd Street
 - Acquired by deed dated May 18, 1921.
 - This property was later sold at a sheriff's sale following a lawsuit: Trustees of Green Street Monthly Meeting of Friends of Philadelphia, a Corporation v. Samuel Rogove (Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia, December Term 1940, Number 1930).

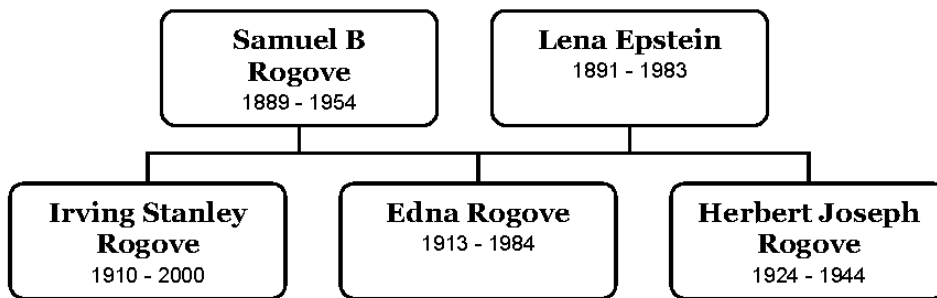

- The client has provided the deed for this property as well as the sheriff's deed. The sheriff's deed contains additional details about the lawsuit.
- 2. Adjacent Flag-Shaped Parcel
 - Acquired by deed dated January 5, 1925.
