

PROWOOD®

TREATED LUMBER

Confidence In Every Board.

THE FOUNDATION FOR A BETTER BUILD

ProWood® pressure-treated lumber offers exceptional protection and performance, guaranteed to withstand harsh weather conditions and the everyday wear and tear of life. It's the latest in treatment technology – the result of decades of research and an unwavering commitment to the industry. With specialized treatment options to meet any application and a wide range of product options, ProWood has the right lumber for the job.

The right lumber for the job.

Built to Last

ProWood® treated lumber offers exceptional protection against rot, decay, and insects, and is backed by industry-leading warranties.

Built for the Real World

ProWood treated lumber is third-party tested and treated to AWP standards, delivering trusted durability and protection for any application.

Built for Any Job

ProWood lumber offers a treatment option for every need.

TREATMENT OPTIONS

- Pressure Treated
- Color Treated
- Kiln Dried
- Borate
- Fire Retardant

ProWood Lumber is backed with a lifetime limited warranty.

TREATMENT RETENTION LEVELS

Light Duty

For non-structural projects that are easily replaced and maintained.

Above Ground (UC3B)

For elements that are easily replaced, maintained, and installed at least 6 inches above the ground.

Ground Contact (UC4A)

For projects where the wood may contact moisture or the ground, or in comparable conditions.

Critical Structure (UC4B)

For structural projects where elements are difficult and / or expensive to replace.