State Opportunity Index

Mississippi

State Summary 2026

Mississippi at a glance

THE STATE OPPORTUNITY INDEX is a framework for measuring and improving education-to-career outcomes. For each state, the Index reports the percentage of graduates who experience a positive return on investment and summarizes progress in five key areas for improving success beyond completion: Clear Outcomes, Quality Coaching, Affordability, Work-Based Learning, and Employer Alignment. States are grouped into four categories: Leading (at the forefront, demonstrating strong progress); Advanced (substantial progress); Developing (early stages of improvement); and Foundational (just beginning their journey).

Mississippi is among 22 states Advanced in Clear Outcomes (17 states are Leading). Quality Coaching for associate students also is Advanced (no states are Leading). The state also is among 35 states and jurisdictions Leading in Affordability at associate degree institutions. Employer Alignment improved from Developing to Advanced, placing Mississippi among five states in this category (no states are Leading). References for "unavailable" refer to states in which there was insufficient data to assign a rating at this time.

Positive ROI

	Mississippi	National
Overall	65%	70%
Bachelor's	69%	73%
Associate	60%	60%

All students who invest their time and money in earning a degree should be financially better off because of it. The Positive ROI value for each state represents the estimated percentage of public college graduates whose earnings premium over high school graduates is enough to repay their total cost of a degree within 10 years.

Clear Outcomes

ADVANCED

Mississippi 2026

Everyone should have access to accurate information on employment outcomes that can help them make informed decisions about education after high school. The Clear Outcomes measure is based on 10 critical elements that contribute to the capacity of state education-to-employment data systems to clarify education pathway outcomes in order to inform personal, public, and private sector investments.

Mississippi improved from Advanced to Leading in interactive resources (element 7). Nondegree and noncredit data (element 1) also is a strength, and it is one of 16 states that are Leading in this element.

COLLECT

State data system elements	State description	Category
1. Includes learner-level and program characteristic data for nondegree and noncredit postsecondary education and training programs	Mississippi collects enrollment and completion data from many nondegree and noncredit postsecondary education and training programs, including: (i) college-issued, noncredit credentials; (ii) WIOA-eligible training providers; (iii) occupational licensure; and (iv) other third-party credentials, namely industry certifications and registered apprenticeships. The state links employment outcomes to all these nondegree and noncredit credentials, for instance through AccelerateMS's annual Return on Investment report.	LEADING
2. Examines earnings by occupation, pay rate, and work location	Mississippi collects occupation (job title and SOC), pay rate (hours worked and hourly wage), work location, and worker type (full-time/part-time status, hourly, salaried, or commissioned) on a voluntary basis.	LEADING

INTEGRATE

State data system elements	State description	Category
3. Integrates and delivers information on learners' earnings and employment after postsecondary education and training completion, and over time	Mississippi integrates administrative records on employment and earnings with its (i) public four-year institutions and (ii) community colleges. The state publishes these integrated postsecondary education-to-employment outcomes as a report and interactive resource. The report features disaggregation by race/ethnicity and gender. Mississippi is in the process of integrating private four-year institutions with administrative records on employment and earnings.	ADVANCED
4. Integrates and delivers information on learners' earnings and employment after high school completion and over time	Mississippi integrates administrative information on employment and earnings with high school completion records. The state publishes these high school-to-employment outcomes as a report and an interactive resource through the Mississippi Department of Education's Mississippi Report Card. While available in the underlying data, employment outcomes are not published with disaggregation by race/ethnicity, gender, or family income/ economic status.	ADVANCED
5. Partners with national and multi-state initiatives to assess education-to-opportunity outcomes for graduates and non-graduates of postsecondary education and training programs who relocate or work outside the state	Mississippi partners with the Multi-State Data Collaborative and State Wage Interchange System.	ADVANCED

PROVIDE

State data system elements	State description	Category
6. Provides comprehensive and timely open data files containing anonymized education-to-opportunity statistics that anyone can access, download, and otherwise use	While not meeting the criteria for the element, Mississippi's SLDS can provide customized aggregate datasets containing information on postsecondary education and training completers, related occupations, jobs advertised, and advertised job skills.	FOUNDATIONAL
7. Publishes robust, timely, and easily understandable interactive resources informing education-to-opportunity decision-making by learners, families, and institutions	Mississippi publishes an interactive resource containing education-to-employment outcomes for public four-year institutions and community colleges. The state publishes a separate interactive resource containing employment outcomes for WIOA-eligible training providers.	LEADING
8. Gives researchers access to individual-level matched education-to-opportunity datasets	Mississippi State University's National Strategic Planning and Analysis Research Center (NSPARC) is contracted with Mississippi's SLDS Governing Board to provide research and analysis services to fulfill approved requests. NSPARC provides only aggregate data, and the request and review process is not clearly documented online. The state is developing a research agenda.	DEVELOPING

IMPACT

State data system elements	State description	Category
9. Enables learners and earners to access and utilize their own verified data, unlocking opportunities for college and career advancement	Mississippi funds and maintains the Mississippi Works portal where users can document their educational achievements, industry credentials, and employment experiences. This system provides real-time job-matching services and individual referrals to public education programs and other social resources.	DEVELOPING
10. Designates a unit with responsibility and dedicated, full-time capacity for generating education-to-employment insights to inform state policymaking and resource allocation decision-making	The National Strategic Planning and Analysis Research Center (NSPARC) at Mississippi State University and AccelerateMS, the Mississippi Office of Workforce Development, both are statutorily responsible for generating E2E insights, including reports on postsecondary employment outcomes and supply/demand labor market attributes. Through the SLDS Governing Board and State Workforce Investment Board, NSPARC and AccelerateMS maintain partnerships with higher education, workforce development, and economic development agencies and/or stakeholders. Quality Coaching

BACHELOR'S DEVELOPING ASSOCIATE ADVANCED

Everyone should have access to coaching that helps them reflect on their talents and interests, choose a career goal, chart a path, and navigate challenges. The Quality Coaching measure is based on the percentage of associate students and bachelor's senior students who reported receiving personalized guidance, timely labor market information, and support to create a plan and overcome barriers.

Mississippi remains Developing in overall Quality Coaching for students at bachelor's degree institutions, consistent with most other states. This is the first report with available Quality Coaching data for Mississippi's associate degree institutions, which are rated Advanced overall and perform above the national average in both the rate of students receiving labor market information by the end of their first year and the rate of students receiving support.

Affordability

BACHELOR'S FOUNDATIONAL ASSOCIATE LEADING

A quality postsecondary education should be within everyone's reach, with clear, predictable, and manageable costs. The Affordability measure is based on how many hours a week the average student would need to work to cover the in-state net price (total cost of attendance minus any grants and scholarships), how many hours a student from a low-income family would need to work to cover their typical in-state net price, and the percentage of students that complete their degree on time – a critical factor in the cost of a degree.

Although Mississippi trails most states in overall affordability at bachelor's degree institutions, affordability at the associate level is a strength, with net prices among the lowest in the country.

Work-Based Learning

BACHELOR'S DEVELOPING

All students should have access to paid, immersive work-based learning experiences that connect education to career. The Work-Based Learning measure is based on the percentage of bachelor's senior students who reported participating in at least one of the following types of paid experiences: paid internship, paid apprenticeship, paid co-op, paid practicum, or paid undergraduate research experience. For students at associate degree institutions, participation is reported when data are available, but states are not categorized.

Mississippi is on par with most other states in paid work-based learning participation. Participation is categorized as Developing for students at bachelor's degree institutions, along with 32 other states, and as Foundational for students at the associate level, as is the case in most states. This is the first report with available work-based learning data for Mississippi's associate degree institutions.

When the margin of error crosses a category threshold, states are given a combined category.

In addition to student self-reporting of apprenticeship participation, states have other sources of information on participation in registered apprenticeships via the U.S. Department of Labor. In Mississippi, 0.27 percent of the state labor force is made up of active apprentices, for a total of 3,425 apprentices. Across the country, this number ranges from 0.86 percent (Hawaii) to 0.12 percent (Oklahoma). In countries with leading apprenticeship systems, such as Germany, Switzerland, Australia, Canada, and England, apprentices constitute about 2.5–3.0 percent of the labor force, so all states in the U.S. have substantial room for improvement.

Employer Alignment

ADVANCED

Students should have access to programs that lead to quality jobs and employers should be able to find the talent they need to fill high-wage roles. The Employer Alignment measure is based on the percentage of terminal bachelor's degree holders aged 25-34 employed in a college-level job as well as the supply/demand ratio for a set of high-demand, high-wage jobs in each state.

College-level employment in Mississippi is 55 percent, compared to 60 percent nationally. Mississippi improved from Developing to Advanced overall in Employer Alignment, making it one of only five states and jurisdictions in that category (no states are Leading). It is particularly strong in its overall supply/demand ratio, and is one of nine states categorized as Advanced or Leading in this element. Supply/demand ratios improved for nursing from Developing to Leading, and for manufacturing/trades technicians and technologists from Foundational to Leading. The ratio for finance and accounting professionals also is a particular strength, with Mississippi one of only four states Leading in this occupational group.

If we get this right, here's what the future could look like: A young person or adult explores options with a career coach. They have data on jobs and earnings by program. They know costs up front, and public options are affordable and accessible. They engage in paid work-based learning, building skills and clarifying goals. By completion, they don't just hold a credential (or a few).
They have a good job, experience, and momentum toward a better future.
