State Opportunity Index

Nebraska

State Summary 2026

Nebraska at a glance

THE STATE OPPORTUNITY INDEX is a framework for measuring and improving education-to-career outcomes. For each state, the Index reports the percentage of graduates who experience a positive return on investment and summarizes progress in five key areas for improving success beyond completion: Clear Outcomes, Quality Coaching, Affordability, Work-Based Learning, and Employer Alignment. States are grouped into four categories: Leading (at the forefront, demonstrating strong progress); Advanced (substantial progress); Developing (early stages of improvement); and Foundational (just beginning their journey).

Nebraska is among 22 states Advanced in Clear Outcomes (17 states are Leading). Quality Coaching for associate students also is Advanced, the highest category achieved for this area. The state also is among 35 states and jurisdictions Leading in Affordability at associate degree institutions. To learn more about progress in other states, visit strada.org/state-opportunity-index.

Positive ROI

	Nebraska	National
Overall	65%	70%
Bachelor's	65%	73%
Associate	63%	60%

All students who invest their time and money in earning a degree should be financially better off because of it. The Positive ROI value for each state represents the estimated percentage of public college graduates whose earnings premium over high school graduates is enough to repay their total cost of a degree within 10 years.

Clear Outcomes

ADVANCED

Nebraska 2026

Everyone should have access to accurate information on employment outcomes that can help them make informed decisions about education after high school. The Clear Outcomes measure is based on 10 critical elements that contribute to the capacity of state education-to-employment data systems to clarify education pathway outcomes in order to inform personal, public, and private sector investments.

Enhanced wage records (element 2) are a strength for Nebraska, and it is one of nine states that are Leading in this element.

Quality Coaching

BACHELOR'S DEVELOPING ASSOCIATE ADVANCED

Everyone should have access to coaching that helps them reflect on their talents and interests, choose a career goal, chart a path, and navigate challenges. The Quality Coaching measure is based on the percentage of associate students and bachelor's senior students who reported receiving personalized guidance, timely labor market information, and support to create a plan and overcome barriers.

Nebraska remains Developing in overall Quality Coaching for students at bachelor's degree institutions, consistent with most other states. This is the first report with available Quality Coaching data for Nebraska's associate degree institutions.

Affordability

BACHELOR'S FOUNDATIONAL ASSOCIATE LEADING

A quality postsecondary education should be within everyone's reach, with clear, predictable, and manageable costs. The Affordability measure is based on how many hours a week the average student would need to work to cover the in-state net price (total cost of attendance minus any grants and scholarships), how many hours a student from a low-income family would need to work to cover their typical in-state net price, and the percentage of students that complete their degree on time – a critical factor in the cost of a degree.

Nebraska trails most other states in overall affordability at bachelor's degree institutions. However, affordability at associate degree institutions is on par with national averages, and it is one of 35 states and jurisdictions with an overall Leading categorization.

Work-Based Learning

BACHELOR'S DEV./ADV.

All students should have access to paid, immersive work-based learning experiences that connect education to career. The Work-Based Learning measure is based on the percentage of bachelor's senior students who reported participating in at least one of the following types of paid experiences: paid internship, paid apprenticeship, paid co-op, paid practicum, or paid undergraduate research experience. For students at associate degree institutions, participation is reported when data are available, but states are not categorized.

Participation in paid work-based learning among Nebraska's bachelor's degree students is on par with national averages. This is the first report with available work-based learning data for Nebraska's associate degree institutions.

When the margin of error crosses a category threshold, states are given a combined category.

In addition to student self-reporting of apprenticeship participation, states have other sources of information on participation in registered apprenticeships via the U.S. Department of Labor. In Nebraska, 0.46 percent of the state labor force is made up of active apprentices, for a total of 5,057 apprentices. Across the country, this number ranges from 0.86 percent (Hawaii) to 0.12 percent (Oklahoma). In countries with leading apprenticeship systems, such as Germany, Switzerland, Australia, Canada, and England, apprentices constitute about 2.5-3.0 percent of the labor force, so all states in the U.S. have substantial room for improvement.

Employer Alignment

DEVELOPING

Students should have access to programs that lead to quality jobs and employers should be able to find the talent they need to fill high-wage roles. The Employer Alignment measure is based on the percentage of terminal bachelor's degree holders aged 25-34 employed in a college-level job as well as the supply/demand ratio for a set of high-demand, high-wage jobs in each state.

College-level employment in Nebraska is 57 percent, compared to 60 percent nationally. Nebraska improved from Foundational to Developing in its overall supply/demand ratio, and ratios improved for manufacturing/trades technicians and technologists from Foundational to Leading, for data analytics and information and cybersecurity from Advanced to Leading, and for nursing from Foundational to Developing.

If we get this right, here's what the future could look like: A young person or adult explores options with a career coach. They have data on jobs and earnings by program. They know costs up front, and public options are affordable and accessible. They engage in paid work-based learning, building skills and clarifying goals. By completion, they don't just hold a credential (or a few).
They have a good job, experience, and momentum toward a better future.
