

Leaving a Legacy Gift to Norfolk Rivers Trust

We understand that leaving a gift in your will is one of the most important decisions you can make. That is why we have compiled and answered a list of commonly asked questions. If there is anything else you would like to know, please contact us on 01263 711299 or email info@norfolkriverstrust.org

Frequently Asked Questions

1. Who can I chat to about leaving a gift to Norfolk Rivers Trust?

We are happy to assist with any queries you may have. If you would like to speak with someone, you can phone us on 01263 711299 during office hours (9am–5pm, Monday–Friday) or you can email us at info@norfolkriverstrust.org

Alternatively, write to us: Legacy Team at Norfolk Rivers Trust, Unit 15, Bayfield Brecks, Holt, Norfolk, NR25 7DZ. Please include your contact name and phone number if you would like us to get back to you by telephone.

2. How do I make a will?

We strongly recommend appointing a qualified solicitor to write your will or to make any amendments to an existing one. The Law Society's website <https://www.lawsociety.org.uk/> is a useful resource to find a qualified solicitor in your area.

3. What is the Norfolk Rivers Trust's registered charity number and details, for inclusion in a will?

Our registered charity number is 1145854, and our address is: Norfolk Rivers Trust Unit 15, Bayfield Brecks, Holt, Norfolk NR25 7DZ.

4. Can I choose what the gift in my will is spent on?

Absolutely! You have complete control over how your gift is used. You may want to dedicate it to a specific river or species, or direct it towards our engagement and educational initiatives.

5. Should I inform you that I have left a gift to Norfolk Rivers Trust?

Knowing about any potential future gifts can help us plan ahead. However, we completely understand if you'd prefer to keep this information confidential for now.

6. As an executor, where do I send the legacy payment?

All correspondence can be sent to:
Legacy Team at Norfolk Rivers Trust,
Unit 15,
Bayfield Brecks,
Holt,
Norfolk,
NR25 7DZ

We will be in touch to finalise the details.

7. I would like donations at my funeral to be used for the benefit of Norfolk Rivers Trust. Can this be arranged?

As long as this is stated in your will, the executors will ensure your wishes are honoured. Please include our name and charity registration number, as outlined in Question 3.
