ROOTED IN LOVE, SENT INTO A CHANGING WORLD.

I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the Lord's holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God. ~ Ephesians 3:16-19

Dear SRVUMC Family,

There is something about October that always feels like a homecoming. The long days of summer give way to cooler mornings, calendars fill back up, children settle into the rhythm of school, and our church family finds its way back to one another. Fall is a season of harvest, but it is also a season of roots. Trees let go of what they no longer need and send their strength downward, preparing for what lies ahead. I have been holding that image in my heart as we enter this new season together.

We live in a remarkable place at a remarkable time. Many of us work in, live near, or (continued on next page) are touched every day by the technology that is reshaping our world. Artificial intelligence writes our emails, answers our questions, and increasingly makes decisions that affect our lives. Much of it is genuinely good. Some of it gives me pause. I suspect many of you carry the same mix of wonder and worry that I do. What does all of this mean for our work, our children, and our relationships? What does it mean to be human, and to be the church, when the ground seems to shift every few months?

That is why this October I am inviting us into a four-week sermon series called "John Wesley in the Age of AI."

It may seem strange to look to an eighteenth-century priest for guidance about twenty-first-century technology. But Wesley lived through his own age of upheaval. New industry was changing how people worked, cities were filling with uprooted families, and poverty and debt were crushing. The established church mostly waited for people to come to it. Wesley didn't wait. In 1739 he stepped into the open fields to preach to coal miners whom respectable religion had written off. When critics complained, he answered with words that still shape who we are: "I look upon all the world as my parish."

Wesley was also, surprisingly, an early adopter. He used inexpensive printing to put sermons and hymns into ordinary hands. He wrote a book of practical medicine so poor families could care for themselves, and he even used electrical machines to treat the sick in free clinics. He didn't fear new tools, and he didn't worship them. He simply asked how they might serve love. I believe that is exactly the question we need to ask today.

We begin on October 4, World Communion Sunday, when Christians around the globe gather at the Lord's Table. I am delighted to welcome our guest preacher, Rev. Woo Kang of The Nett Church in the Atlanta area, who also leads At The Table, a dinner church in Historic Norcross, Georgia. Woo's ministry has carried the table out into the community to meet people who may never walk into a sanctuary. It is a beautiful picture of Wesley's field preaching in our day, and a fitting reminder that the bread we break here in the valley is the same bread broken in Nairobi, Seoul, and São Paulo. One loaf, one body, one world.

On October 11, we'll look at technology itself, asking not simply whether something is allowed, but whether it builds up, and who might be left out of the blueprint.

On October 18, we celebrate Laity Sunday, and I can't imagine a better fit. Methodism grew because Wesley trusted (continued on next page) ordinary people with real ministry: class leaders, lay preachers, women and men of every trade. This year's Laity Sunday theme, "Together By Grace: Be Grounded in Love," comes from the verse at the top of this page. Most of the church's ministry doesn't happen on Sunday morning. It happens on Monday, in classrooms, hospital rooms, offices, and kitchens, in places no pastor will ever reach. You are already sent, and that day we will celebrate you.

Finally, on October 25, we close with "Named, Not Numbered." In a world that counts, sorts, and scores us, the gospel insists that every person is known and loved by name. God knit us together. Jesus wept at his friend's grave. No algorithm can do that. And as long as neighbors near and far are reduced to statistics by poverty and war, the church has holy work to do.

Our United Methodist vision calls us to love boldly, serve joyfully, and lead courageously. My prayer this fall is that we will do just that, rooted deeply in love and sent gladly into a changing world. Invite a friend, especially one who has wondered whether faith still has anything to say about the world we live in. I believe it does.

See you at the Table,
P. Sam | syun@srvumc.org

SUBMIT NAMES OF LOVED ONES FOR ALL SAINTS' DAY.

On November 1st, we will celebrate All Saints' Sunday with a special moment to lift up the names of our loved ones who have passed on to be with God. If you would like a name lifted up, please email Pastor Sam (syun@srvumc.org) directly by Monday, October 26.

FAITH FEATURE: THE PRAYER TEAM.

By Sarah Stribling

Prayer changes things. The Prayer Team can testify to that statement's truth. Consisting of Nancy Banisch, Marla Scheicher, Patsy Kyles, Millie Sherman, Sylvia Hemmerich, and Pastor Sam, the Prayer Team meets faithfully each week to pray over every SRVUMC prayer request. Since its inception in 2023, the number of prayer requests has increased every year. Prayer has become a bedrock spiritual practice for SRVUMC. The Prayer Team answers the call to intercede on behalf of others. By praying for others, members of the Prayer Team have deepened their prayer lives as well as witnessed the impact of prayer.

For some members of the Prayer Team, parents modeled spiritual disciplines that continue to influence their prayer lives today. Patsy recalls her godfather, a deacon at her hometown church, reading scripture and praying with her when she was a child. She also grew up watching her father pray daily. "His discipline to daily prayer and his faithfulness impacted me deeply," Patsy remembers. One Prayer Team member was fortunate to have a prayer mentor. Marla felt inspired by Kay Jones' (continued on next page) heartfelt and open relationship with God. On the other hand, Nancy's prayer life grew in fits and starts over time. "I don't think I ever consciously 'got into' prayer...I just have a lot to be thankful for and feel very blessed," she states. That sense of gratitude shines through every member of the Prayer Team. For them, prayer is not an obligation, it is a privilege.

"Praying over the prayer requests has been an honor... the requests that come in have shown the ceaseless love for family, friends, and the world this church holds," Marla maintains. Compassion stands at the center of the Prayer Team's activities. "I come to Prayer Team meetings because I care about the people in our church: their joys, needs and hurts." Millie declares. The Prayer Team stands in the gap for others. Some have even experienced answered prayers themselves. One Prayer Team member remarks, "In most cases, [God] did not give me what I want but what is best for me."

up week after week is group accountability, a shared group mission, and a strong sense that prayer makes a difference. Praying as a group lightens what can be a heavy emotional load. "We're sharing the responsibility with each other and the Lord -- and He does the heavy lifting!" Nancy recalls. Knowing God is in control brings relief and joy. Sylvia says, "The act of praying for someone else shifts your own perspective and it deepened my relationship with God... Prayer [is] my lifeline..." Millie also knows the power of prayer: "People prayed for heal better and feel loved." Indeed, prayer changes things.

But prayer is not meant to be relegated to a specific group of people; prayer is for everyone. The Prayer Team knows that learning to pray is an ongoing process. Recalling Pastor Sam's encouragement to those struggling with their prayer lives, Sylvia says, "God responds deeply to unvarnished truth, and short prayers can hold as much weight as long, repetitive phrases." She advises listening to the Holy Spirit and asking the Spirit to show you how to pray. "Keep (continued on next page)

(continued from previous page) trying,” Marla encourages. “God loves you and cares about what is important to you. Open your heart and you will grow.” Everyone can benefit from a deeper prayer life.

The Prayer Team would love to pray for you! Click here or visit <https://www.srvumc.org/prayer> to submit your confidential prayer request.

PASTA FEED & AUCTION FUNDRAISER OCTOBER 17.

By Larry Pasquale

On Saturday, October 17, 2026, the Methodist Men's Group will host an All-Church Pasta Feed and Auction to help raise funds for the Courtyard shades and a new dishwasher for the Wesley Center. Every dollar donated to this special fundraiser will help pay for these special projects.

The pasta dinner will feature family recipes brought from Naples, Italy, by Larry Pasquale's maternal grandfather in the early 1900s. He learned these recipes from his mother and grandmother, tracing their origins back to the mid-1800s. His family recipes include pasta sauce, meatballs, and salad dressing along with garlic bread and homemade tiramisu! Gluten free pasta and bread will be available.

Along with an authentic Italian feast, we will hold a silent auction featuring items donated by community and church members. Following dinner, a live auction will offer vacation homes, timeshares, and ethnic dinners for six or eight guests, generously donated by church members. For more information or to donate an auction item, please contact Dave McWilliams

(d_mcwilliams410@msn.com) or Jerry Ricker (jerryricker19@outlook.com). Details about live auction offerings will be available in advance, so you can plan ahead.

The Methodist Men's Breakfast Group is covering the cost of this event, allowing all donations from the dinner and auction to be credited directly to your church account. Suggested donations are $45 per adult and $25 for youth, children, college-age attendees, and church staff.

If you have not attended a dinner-auction before, you can expect an enjoyable evening filled with great food, laughter, and fellowship as church members bid on unique auction items. Proceeds from the auction will help restore our beautiful courtyard shades and ensure the Wesley Kitchen remains equipped for large group events.

We are excited about a fun evening for all!

BALANCE AND MOBILITY CLASS MEETS WEEKLY.

Balance and Mobility class for adults over 55 meets Thursdays from 12-12:45 PM in the Fireside Room.

Move with strength. Age with confidence.

Falls are one of the top reasons older adults land in the emergency department. As a former ER nurse, instructor Teri DeLaMontanya has seen firsthand how often loss of muscle, mobility, and balance are to blame—and how much of it is preventable.

After age 30, we lose up to 5% of muscle mass each decade. That decline affects strength, reaction time, and stability. But it doesn't have to. With focused movement and strength training, you can rebuild muscle, improve coordination, and protect your independence at any age.

This class is designed for adults 55+ and led by Teri—a Registered Nurse, Ironman triathlete, and lifestyle coach with deep medical knowledge and personal experience. Whether you're recovering, maintaining, or building strength for the future, Teri will meet you where you are.

Join us at San Ramon Valley Methodist Church—a welcoming space where you'll train your body to stay upright, energized, and in motion.

It's never too late to start.

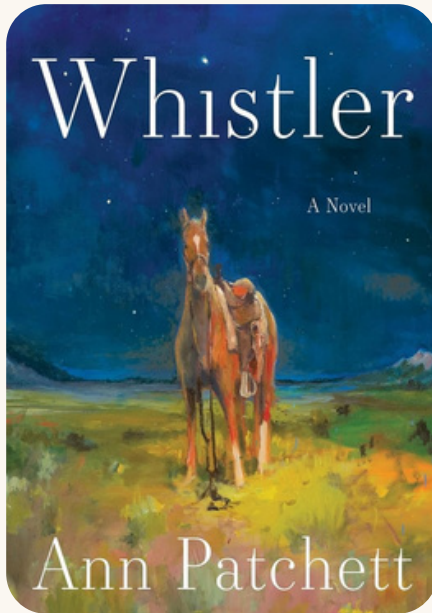

This is a donation based class and is open to the public. Suggested donation is $15 payable to PEACE (Providing Easier Access to Care Everywhere).

BETWEEN THE BOOKENDS.

Happy Halloween! It's that time of year to watch out for those howling ghosts and happy, excited Halloweeners shouting, "Trick or Treat!" Be prepared! And get ready for some intriguing books on the library cart. Three of Ann Patchett's previous novels are on the cart since her newest one, The Whistler, is reviewed this month.

In The Whistler the author presents a family of eight and describes how each member has affected the others throughout their lives. Sisters Daphne and Leda grew up for six years or less with their father, Buddy, a lobster fisherman. When it was obvious that he was not suited to be a dad who likes being at home, their mother, Abigail, divorced him. Not long after she married Eddie, a fellow worker at a publishing company. One day at school Leda became very ill and had to be taken to the hospital. Therefore, Eddie must get Daphne from school and take her home after seeing Leda and her mom at the hospital. But on the way home, they are in a terrible sliding off the road accident on a snow laden country lane. Will they be seen and rescued? It is here that the reader learns how Buddy's habit of keeping a survival kit in the trunk of the family car saves their lives. One example of their intertwined lives.

Enjoy Reading!

The library does not have these books: Solito, Women of the Bible Speak and Ordinary Grace. Yet patrons confirmed they were returned, Please search for them.

If you have books that you would like to donate, please consider taking them to the public library for the sale which they have to raise money for new books.

PRESCHOOL

“GOODNESS IS EVERYWHERE”!

United Methodist Preschool began our new school year on September 1st!

Our adorable Preschoolers are now settled in, and new friendships are forming while old friends remain close. We had a big Welcome Back to School Party for our families in September and everyone enjoyed spending time together and getting to know each other. We loved seeing our families connect in our beautiful backyard playground.

Our Pre-K and 3's classes are enjoying Chapel Wednesday mornings in the Sanctuary. Chapel is a special time for our children to learn about God, listen to stories, sing songs, pray together, and discover how God's love helps us grow. Our Fruit of the Spirit focus for October is GOODNESS. We love to say, "Goodness is everywhere, Goodness is in me."

For the beginning of the month the children will focus on apples in preparation for our famous Apple Pie Night! There will be apple art, apple science, apple measuring and apple stories which will all lead us to the days where we will prepare apple pies for our lovely families to enjoy together on Apple Pie night- Wednesday October 14th. The children will have the opportunity to wash, peel and chop apples that will be mixed with delicious ingredients to be baked into yummy pies!

The latter part of October is all about Halloween! The children will be singing fun Halloween songs, making not-so-spooky art, ghost slime, and exploring all things Halloween in our sensory bins.

Our annual Halloween Parades are on the Thursday 29th and Friday the 30th. You are invited to join us on Friday at 11:30 AM if you'd like to see our adorable United Methodist Preschool children parade around the Courtyard in their costumes!
