Au revoir!

BEFORE YOU GO . . .

If you can't book a plane ticket to Palm Beach, Florida, the second-best option is to take a look at this vibrant dining area by interior designer Helen Bergin. Here, sophisticated design meets play as Bergin merges bright colors and textures to transform this dining room into a lively conversation and connection space. From the eclectic palm tree wall decor to the natural texture of the wooden dining chairs, this room pays homage to 1960s Palm Beach while honoring the comfort of modern living.
