

Navigating Ethical Dilemmas

1

Identify common ethical dilemmas encountered in phlebotomy

2

Apply ethical principles such as autonomy, beneficence, non-maleficence, and justice to real world situations

3

Demonstrate appropriate decision-making in scenarios involving consent, confidentiality, and cultural sensitivity

4

Recognise when to escalate or report ethical concerns

Course Details

Duration: 5 hours (theory & discussion)

Mode of Delivery: Virtual Interactive

Target Group: Medical professionals in the Pathology sector

Entry Requirements: None

Certificate of Completion

For more information, email:
phlebotomy-recruitment@ampath.co.za