

NIS2 REQUIREMENTS	OVERLAP WITH ISO 27001	HEARTLAND OPERATING MODEL
RISK MANAGEMENT POLICIES Ihr Your framework for protecting digital assets and responding effectively to security incidents.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Asset and risk management processes to conduct risk assessments and mitigation planning.
INCIDENT MANAGEMENT PLANS How your organization responds to and manages security incidents or cyberattacks.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Integrated policy, asset, and risk management, including intelligent templates and automated task management.
BUSINESS CONTINUITY & CRISIS MANAGEMENT Strategies to ensure operational continuity during and after a disruption.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Integrated policy, asset, and risk management, including intelligent templates and automated task management.
HUMAN RESOURCES SECURITY & ACCESS CONTROL Granting and revoking access to information and systems.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Integrated policy, asset, and risk management, including intelligent templates and automated task management.
EFFECTIVENESS OF CYBERSECURITY MEASURES Regular review and evaluation of cybersecurity controls.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Automated task management and audit functionality, including structured audit templates.
CYBERSECURITY TRAINING Training your teams in digital security best practices.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Information security and data protection training delivered through our training management system.
SUPPLY CHAIN SECURITY Ensuring that suppliers and service providers adequately protect sensitive data.	Beyond ISO 27001	Vendor management: supply chain documentation and oversight. Contract management: review of data processing agreements (DPAs).
INCIDENT REPORTING OBLIGATIONS Reporting significant security incidents to the competent authorities.	Beyond ISO 27001	Incident management module including automated risk assessment and recommended response actions.

Take Away:

A Heartland management system consolidates ISO 27001 and NIS2 into a unified governance, risk, and documentation framework.