Second Thrift Store!

Major news as we announced in August the purchase of a property that will become the second store for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul North Texas. Located at 4801 S. Buckner Blvd. the 28,000 sq ft property will bring a physical presence to the southeastern part of the Metroplex and will open later this year.

Our Father, Our Neighbor

Early Giving for North Texas Giving Day began in August and announced the launch of our new Hope Fund, designed to invite people to become part of our home visit efforts in the poorest of communities.

The Hope Fund campaign will raise funds to distribute to local conferences with the greatest needs and fewest resources to serve our neighbors.

StudyTime

- Ten students attended Camp Ozark for All, a camp in the Ozark Mountains for city students to give them outdoor camping experience.
- Said one mom, "Because of your generosity, my daughters are creating wonderful, memorable experiences that they will cherish."
- The StudyTime school year begins on September 14th in all three locations.
