TIPS & TRICKS

Scout Selling Tips

- Concentrate on Scouting rather than the product. Try not to ask if they would like to 'buy popcorn'; if they wanted to buy popcorn, they could find it at a lower price in a store.
- Individuals purchase popcorn to support the Scout in front of them.
- Be specific about how the funds will be utilized. People are more inclined to buy if they understand where their money is going.
- Maintain eye contact. If the customer is not looking at you or you - are not looking at them, someone is not paying attention.

- Be courteous. Use 'Sir' and 'Ma'am' when addressing potential donors.
- Dietary restrictions? recommend Popcorn for Heroes & Helpers donations.
- Most individuals do not purchase because they were not asked... over 80% will buy popcorn when prompted.
- More than 90% of individuals who buy popcorn from a Scout have already decided to support Scouting before they even see what the Scout is offering!
- Express THANK YOU even if only for their time.
