DEFINITIONS

1. Defined Terms. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this Agreement have the meanings provided below:

"Authorized User" means an individual (e.g., an employee or customer of Client) who is authorized by the Client (who is a party to an Order) to use the Services, and for whom the Client is responsible for ensuring compliance with this Agreement. The Client is also responsible for all Authorized Users' actions or inactions with respect to the Services. Authorized Users must be (1) employees or contractors of Client or of an affiliate thereof, or (2) employees or contractors of a customer or prospective customer of a Client (such as an employee of a company for whom a Subscriber or Subscription User of Client is providing HR consulting services).

"Alotten Platform" means the cloud-based SaaS software platform providing human resources modules available at www.app.alotten.com.

"Beta Services" means new products and services that have not been made commercially available, which the Company may offer for a specified amount of time for market testing and improvement purposes.

"Client" means You or the organization for whom you are using the Services.

"Client Data" means all data, information, and other content, in any form or medium that is provided through the use of Services directly or indirectly by the Client or their Authorized Users.

"Documentation" refers to the information and instructions for using Services, which may be provided from time to time on the Alotten Platform or otherwise by Alotten.

“Fees” means the amounts owed for accessing Services, including subscriptions, which may be specified on an Order (including the information received while logging in or signing up) or other agreement with us in any format (whether online, paper or electronic document, or otherwise).

“Free Services” means any Services that the Company may make available to You free of charge; except that “Free Services” does not include Free-Trial Services or Purchased Services.

“Free-Trial Services” means any Services that the Company may make available to You free of charge for a limited time in order for You to evaluate the Services for a limited time.

“Non-Alotten Products & Services” means any product or service (regardless of whether it is web-based, mobile-based, offline or in any other form) that was not created by or for the Company and is not owned by the Company, and that interoperates with any of the Services or is made available on the Alotten Platform.

“Order” means a (1) Purchase Order (defined below), or (2) any mutually agreed order for Services (such as an Alotten Order Form or statement of work) which refers to this Agreement, includes a description of the Services to be provided, the term, associated Fees and payment information, and any other applicable terms or conditions. Orders may be updated to include additional Services from time to time or may otherwise be revised by mutual agreement of the parties or in accordance with their terms. Orders may be agreed to on our Website or through any other format approved by Alotten (electronic, the Allotten Platform, paper or otherwise). The terms of any Orders are incorporated into this Agreement by reference and may supplement it, but will not otherwise alter or modify the terms of the Agreement unless an Order specifically references a particular Section of this Agreement that is being altered or modified, unless an agreed Order specifically states that its terms control conflicting terms in the Agreement or these Terms of Service.

“Purchase Order” means a purchase of access to the Services by a Client in a means authorized by the Company. For example, a Purchase Order might be a third-party integration tool where a Client selects the number of Subscription or Authorized Users

The Client (who is party to an Order) is responsible for ensuring all Subscribers or Subscription Users and all other Authorized Users gaining access through Subscribers or Subscription Users agree to and comply with this Agreement, and for their actions with respect to the Services. Subscription Users or Subscribers must be the Client in an Order, or employees or contractors of that Client.

For avoidance of doubt, the Company is solely responsible for any taxes assessable against it based on its business including that associated with income, property and employees.

Arbitration shall commence upon written notice (“Arbitration Notice”) by either party to the other and to the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services, Inc. (“JAMS”). Such dispute shall be conducted before a single arbitrator. Such arbitrator shall be a lawyer knowledgeable and experienced in the field of software licensing, and shall not be affiliated with either party, or otherwise have any current or previous relationship or association with either party. Each party shall designate in writing a list of potential arbitrators within thirty (30) days of the Arbitration Notice. The parties consent to use any arbitrator whose name appears on both parties’ list of potential arbitrators, subject to the arbitrator’s availability. If no arbitrator appears on both parties’ lists, or if the parties cannot agree on an arbitrator within sixty (60) days of the Arbitration Notice, the arbitrator shall be selected by the office of the JAMS in Travis County, Texas. After an arbitrator is selected, the parties shall promptly consult with the arbitrator to determine the details of the arbitration process including a schedule and the dates and location of the arbitration hearing. The arbitrator's decision shall be final and legally binding on both parties and judgment may be entered thereon. Unless provided otherwise herein, the arbitration shall be governed by the applicable JAMS rules, including the Comprehensive Arbitration Rules and Procedures, applicable at the time of the Notice of Arbitration. Each party shall be responsible for its share of the costs of the arbitration hearing as specified in the JAMS rules. In the event a party fails to participate in the arbitration after having been provided Notice, unsuccessfully challenges the arbitrator's decision, or fails to comply with the arbitrator's decision, the other party is entitled to costs of the associated litigation, including reasonable attorney's fees for having to compel arbitration or defend or enforce the award.
