

Reports

The reports module allows you to export and share accurate building data in CSV format instantly.

To generate a report, select any of the available options. Once selected, a CSV file will be generated and downloaded to your device.

