Front Cover Photograph: "Defending the Turf" – The spectacular photo of two male Greater Prairie-chickens fighting was made on the Browning Ranch in the spring of 2008. The image was captured at "first light," which gives it the early morning glow. It was one of the award winning photographs in the Outdoor Writers Association of America's 2009 photographic contest. Back Cover Photograph: Greater Prairie-chicken hen shows us what nesting cover she prefers.
