Re: Notice of Claim on Behalf of [REDACTED]

STATEMENT OF CLAIM

This is a notice pursuant to Indiana code section 34-13-3.5-1, et seq. on behalf of [REDACTED] a Minor at the time of injury, by his parents, [REDACTED] for injuries [REDACTED] suffered as a result of intentional, willful, malicious, and/or negligent acts or omissions of Mooresville Consolidated School Corporation, North Madison Elementary School, and their administration

These events are believed to have taken place at North Madison Elementary School on or about April 2025. Specifically, [REDACTED] was harassed, inappropriately touched, and intimidated, by his art teacher, Mr. James Buchler. Art is a required class at NMES and the inappropriate touching occurred during the class. When [REDACTED] were made aware by [REDACTED] that his art teacher was making him uncomfortable, they reached out to a school official to voice concerns. A few days later, the parents of [REDACTED] were made aware that [REDACTED] was called down to the Principal's office for questioning regarding Mr. Buchler's behavior. At the time of the questioning, the school had already received several reports and/or notices that Mr. Buchler was acting inappropriately. Notwithstanding this prior knowledge, the school did nothing to remove Mr. Buchler from his position or otherwise keep students safe. As a result of the foregoing conduct, [REDACTED] and his parents have experienced pain and suffering, physical, mental and emotional trauma, loss of enjoyment of life, medical expenses, counseling expenses, and other damages.

ALLEGED NEGLIGENCE

Based upon facts presently known and upon information and belief, the following parties were negligent as set forth below. The claimant and his counsel reserve the right to supplement or amend these allegations of negligence as additional facts and evidence become known or available:

1. Mooresville Consolidated School Corporation – Failure to exercise reasonable care for the supervision and protection of its students such as [REDACTED] failure to adequately prevent abuse; failure to properly train and supervise school employees.
2. North Madison Elementary School – Failure to exercise reasonable care for the supervision and protection of its students such as [REDACTED] failure to adequately prevent abuse; failure to properly train and supervise school employees.
