HOUSE KEEPING

1. Cake and Decor

A symphony of celebration awaits! We extend a gracious invitation to bring your own exquisite cake, lovingly prepared in a commercial kitchen. A modest $5 per person fee to gracefully cut and serve your delightful creation on a plate with Chantilly cream and strawberry. Should our esteemed events team grant their approval, we welcome your own decorative elements to elevate the ambiance. We merely request the gentle touch of returning decor items after your splendid affair.

2. Cancellation Polity

Amid the ebb and flow of life's tapestry, we understand that plans may change. For restaurant bookings, we offer a 24-hour grace period for graceful adjustments. Beyond this window, a graceful fee of $50 per head gracefully accompanies cancellations. A 15-minute grace period awaits latecomers, ensuring their celebration remains undisturbed. For grander events, such as magnificent gatherings or wondrous festivities, a 14-day grace period weaves its enchantment. Regrettably, any cancellations beyond this enchanting window will bestow the forfeiture of the deposit amount. In the ethereal realm of unforeseen circumstances, if a COVID-related cancellation arises within a 72-hour window, we embrace the opportunity to reschedule your cherished celebration.

3. Dress Code

As twilight casts its golden glow upon your imagined Santorini soiree, envision yourself adorned in resplendent attire, captivating the entire island with your presence. Embrace the allure of our strict house rules, gracefully bidding adieu to thongs, singlets, and fluorescent work garments. We embark together on a journey to weave a spell of unforgettable experiences, forever etched in our hearts.

4. Entertainment

Elevate your experience with the harmonious notes of enchantment! At GFH, we take great pride in curating a tapestry of mesmerising moments, where Melbourne's most giftedDJs and live performers grace our weekends and in-house celebrations. Join us every Friday and Saturday night from 7 pm, as the air comes alive with melodies and rhythms, embracing you in an electric aura of music and mirth. For exclusive Mezzanine events, our offerings include hand-held microphones, expertly projecting their lyrical charms through the inbuilt sound system or DJ mixer. In pursuit of visual delights, we bestow the mesmerising beauty of our in-house monitors/TVs. And when the urge to conquer the pool table arises, indulge in exclusivity during private event hires, keeping those pool-savvy sharks at bay in the public pool.

5. Children / Under Age

In the heart of our celebration, we hold dear the safety and joy of all our cherished guests. As such, we kindly request that children in the venue remain under loving supervision at all times. Revel in the knowledge that we have two highchairs on-site, embracing the young ones as they join in our enchanting gatherings. Our embrace extends to accommodate underage guests, with a tender limit thoughtfully considered. Should guests under 18 grace our celebration, we hold dear the presence of a legal guardian, ensuring a seamless and joyful experience. Kindly note that once the kitchen gracefully closes its doors at 9:30 pm, our underage guests shall bid their adieu to the realm of celebrations, understanding that GFH caters to an adult demographic.
