"When I was a student, I sought opportunities to earn extra money while getting experience in the field. Caring for a disabled individual is one of the best jobs I could have ever asked for."

- Lindsee C., Physical Therapist

"Nannying for an autistic boy taught me so much about how I see the world and sparked a passion in me to pursue an Occupational Therapy degree."

-Milah B., OTD

"Caring for people with disabilities expanded my perspective, gave me an edge in job interviews, and remains one of the greatest joys of my life."

-Jasmene P., Educator
