

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS RESOURCES

Below, find resources to help you and your chapters understand and share legal rights information related to protests, civic engagement, and community safety during the No Kings protest on March 28th.

DOWNLOADABLE RESOURCES

- ACLU: Know Your Rights Share Cards \(Protesters' Rights\)
 - Printable pocket cards for protest participants
 - Summarizes rights around assembly, filming police, and detainment
 - Can be distributed to volunteers, media, and attendees

- ABA Commission on Immigration: Know Your Rights Video Series
 - Short educational videos explaining key rights for immigrants
 - Translated into multiple languages
 - Accompanied by downloadable manuals for detention and asylum contexts

LEGAL & CIVIC ENGAGEMENT RESOURCES

- ACLU: Know Your Rights \(Main Hub\)
 - Central index of ACLU "Know Your Rights" resources
 - Covers protest, police encounters, free speech, discrimination, and more

- Offers printables, graphics, and training materials
- ACLU: Discrimination Against Immigrants and Muslims
 - Focused guidance on navigating encounters with immigration and federal agents
 - Includes a printable “Know Your Rights” wallet card
 - Ideal for outreach to immigrant or faith-based communities
- ACLU: We Have Rights Campaign
 - Multimedia campaign with animated videos and downloadable guides
 - Explains what to do if approached by ICE at home, work, or in public
 - Encourages community empowerment and preparedness
- ABA Free Legal Answers Platform
 - Free online portal for civil legal questions (non-criminal)
 - Connects users with volunteer attorneys through a Q&A format
 - Ideal for low-income individuals seeking basic rights guidance
- ABA Detention & LOP Information Line
 - Contact line for individuals in immigration detention
 - Offers recorded “Know Your Rights” messages and referral info
 - Can be promoted to legal aid partners and hotline volunteers