

PHISHING

A malicious email designed to trick you into sharing sensitive info (like passwords or financial details)

Often looks like it's from a trusted source (Google, HR, your principal, etc.)

May include links or attachments that install malware or steal credentials

SPAM

Unwanted or junk email - often advertisements or promotions you never signed

Usually from legitimate but annoying senders

May include ads or offers but usually not dangerous

REPORT WITH THESE TOOLS

CyberNut

Spam button

