

Dear Providence Families,

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I would like to share an important leadership update with you. The Board, after careful consideration with Mr. Ross, has decided that this will be Mr. Ross' last academic year at Providence Classical Christian Academy. Mr. Ross has faithfully served Providence for 19 years, and we are deeply grateful for his leadership and steadfast commitment he has made to our mission. There is no doubt that he has been instrumental in shaping Providence into the school it is today.

The Board of Directors has engaged NextEd, a nationally recognized Christian School Consulting and Executive Search Firm, to facilitate a nationwide search for Providence's next Head of School. Our community is invited and encouraged to participate in this search process by providing your input via a school-wide survey that will be sent in the next two weeks. Additional details on the search process and opportunities for community input are forthcoming and will be communicated directly.

Leadership changes can feel unsettling, but they also provide an opportunity to reaffirm our shared purpose and our trust in God's faithfulness. We ask for your prayers for our faculty and staff, our school community, the Board, and both Mr. Ross and the future leader God is preparing for Providence as we walk through this season together.

Thank you for your continued trust, support, and partnership. We are committed to timely updates throughout the search process as we move forward and will share additional information as meaningful milestones are reached.

With Utmost Sincerity,

Adrienne
