JULY 2026 Retail Fuel Prices

The Minister of Finance has advised that the following changes in retail petroleum product prices, inclusive of VAGST, will apply from 1 July 2026.

- Petrol: increase by 1.7 sene per litre, from $3.99 to $4.00.
- Diesel: decrease by 82.3 sene per litre, from $5.31 to $4.48.
- Kerosene: decrease by 100.1 sene per litre, from $5.02 to $4.02.

July retail prices are based on cargo loaded in May and delivered to Samoa in June 2026.

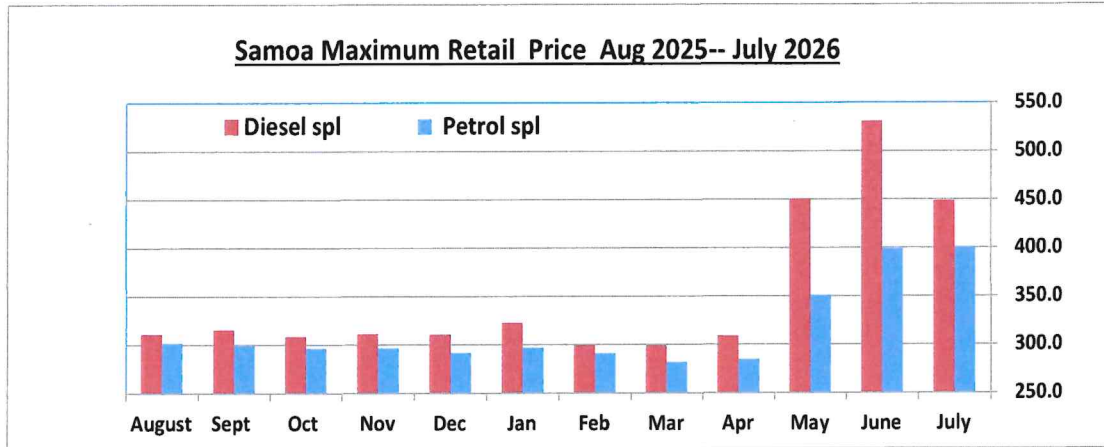

The price decreases for both Diesel and Jet/Kerosene reflect the removal of the significant premium that traders and consumers paid for these refined products in April. Petrol prices did not include these premiums and therefore remain at April levels.

The Memorandum of Understanding between the United States and Iran, signed on 18 June, lays out the conditions for reopening the Strait of Hormuz while calling for an immediate end to hostilities, including in Lebanon. The United States and Iran will negotiate for 60 days to bring a final end to the war.

The crude oil and refined product markets can be expected to remain volatile over the coming months. On the supply side, the Government continues to work with its supplier, ExxonMobil. Further cargoes are scheduled to arrive this week and again in mid-August.
