SEPTEMBER 2026 Retail Fuel Prices

The Minister of Finance has advised that the following changes in retail petroleum product prices, inclusive of VAGST, will apply from 1st SEPTEMBER 2026.

- Petrol: decrease by 2.5 sene per litre, from $3.57 to $3.54
- Diesel: increase by 32.5 sene per litre, from $3.89 to $4.22
- Kerosene: increase by 29.3 sene per litre, from $3.48 to $3.78

September Retail Prices are based on Cargo loading in July delivered to Samoa in August 2026.

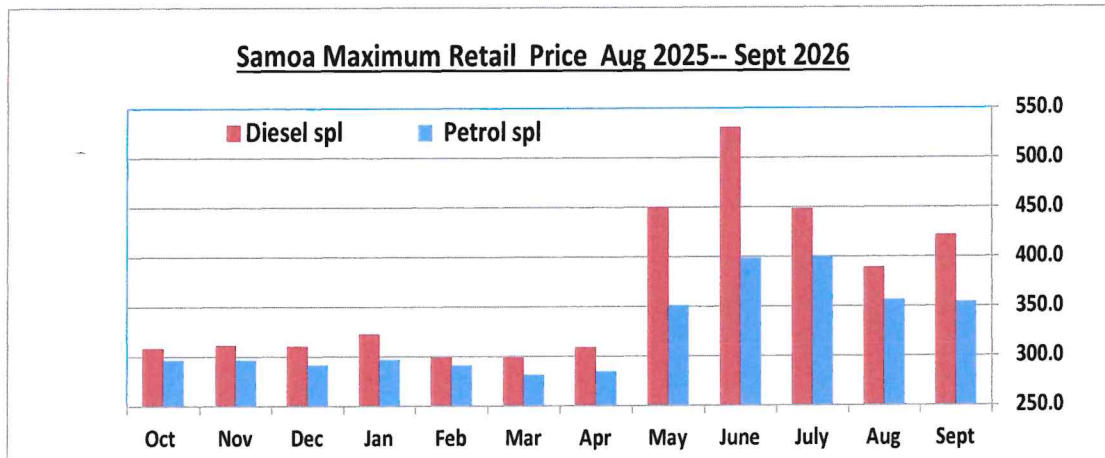

The price variances reflect the continuing uncertainty regarding Crude Oil cargoes transiting the Straits of Hormuz during July which in turn impact refined product priced sourced from SE Asian Refineries such as Singapore.

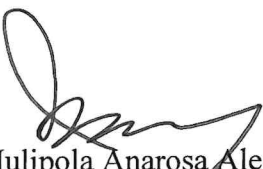

Petrol prices have remained relatively stable over the last 2 months, reflecting a balance between reduced consumer demand and refinery production capacities.

Diesel on the other hand, as the key input to the transport, construction, power and mining industries, is subject to higher levels of competition which in turn leads to higher prices. Add in the more complex refining processes to make Diesel, further extends the price differential to Petrol.
