| PRAYER IS IMPORTANT |
| -Please keep Loretta Bower in your prayers. She took another fall Sunday afternoon. She is a little banged up but overall is fine. Prayers for her family as they continue to look after her. - David House went to Lompoc ER Wednesday afternoon with continued difficulties with his health. He was to be taken to Cottage when a bed opened up. Please keep him in your prayers for comfort & peace through these trials. - Ethel Senior asked for prayers for hers & Buzz's sister-in-law Karen House . She is in a Tulsa hospital. The doctors placed a stint but are still working on getting her A Fib under control. Please keep her in prayers. - Don Ribble's sister came in this past week & they have embarked on a cross-country trip to the east coast. Please keep them in your prayers for safe travels. - Cat Aquino asked for prayers for her friend Sylvan . She traveled to the Jersey shore this past week. Prayers for a blessed visit. - Alora Cottam asked for prayers for her friend Sonja . God knows her needs. - Shannon Cottam asked for prayers for her friend Lindsey Cyperp & her son Memphis . He is very sick & in UCLA. Please keep this family in your prayers. - Ann Thompson asked for prayers for her brother Tom , who fell off scaffolding & separated his shoulder. Please keep him in your prayers for a swift recovery. - Billy Jean Chadwick met 2 men @ the Bridge House Outreach last week that seemed interested in learning more about God. Please keep them in your prayers that they may seek Him out. -Please keep Karen Anderson in your prayers as she remains in CCC & is doing well. She is getting stronger & attributes that to visits & support she is receiving here. She will be going back to USC for further surgery sometime. -Prayers for Jerry & Sandy Hopkins as they return today from a 2-week vacation with family. -Prayers for Dennis Grimm as he is in the mid-west with his brothers. Prayers for safe travel back. |

| ENCOURAGING WORDS |
| I Must Speak the Same Thing! It is claimed to be an old Scottish proverb—"Confession is good for the soul." However, the Scotts had nothing to do with the origin of this practice. Confession of sins and of wrongs was introduced and emphasized by God in the days of the Old Testament and maintained as a necessary and valuable practice into the Christian Age. In the New Testament, the English word confess literally means "to speak the same thing," with the idea being "to assent, agree with." So, for example, when one "shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God" (1 John 4:15), he is, in essence, speaking the same thing that God says—"God says that Jesus is the Son of God; now, I say with Him the same." In order to become a Christian, this agreement with the teaching of God (this confession) is necessary. (Rom. 10:9) Even after becoming a child of God, there are confessions that we must make, in order to remain in a sanctified relationship with our Father. The first of these involves confessions that we must make to God Himself of the sins and shortcomings in our lives. Think of the definition—to confess our sins to God means that we "speak the same thing" or agree. It is plain to see that "confessing our sins" is not merely saying, "I'm sorry." Someone can say "I'm sorry" to God without ever saying, "I agree with you God. You said that what I have done is a sin, and I want to speak the same thing as You. Therefore, I confess that I have sinned against You." Here's the best news of all, "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins." (1 John 1:9) |
