THOUGHT FOR TODAY

The world is changed by your example, not by your opinion.

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

But how is it to your credit if you receive a beating for doing wrong and endure it? But if you suffer for doing good and you endure it, this is commendable before God. ²¹ To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in His steps.
~ 1 Peter 2:20-21

ENCOURAGING WORDS

What Does God Love?
Proverbs 6:16-19 is a well-known passage that teaches seven things which the Lord hates. But, turn that around. What are some things that the Lord loves? To be more like Him and to be more pleasing to Him, we need to learn to hate what He hates, and to love what He loves. So what are some of the things that Scripture says the Lord loves?
God loves all people. Jesus said, “God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son” (John 3:16). If I’m going to be like Him, then I need to love all people, too.
God loves sinners. Paul wrote, “God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us” (Rom. 5:8) If I’m going to be like Him, then I need to love those who do wrong, too.
God loves those who do right. The psalmist said, “The Lord loves the righteous” (Psa. 146:8), and Solomon wrote that God “loves one who pursues righteousness” (Prov. 15:9). If I want to be loved by God, I need to love right and do right, even if no one else is!
God loves those who obey Him. David and Moses remind us that God’s “steadfast love” is always “toward those who fear Him” (Psa. 103:11) and “keep His commandments” (Deut. 7:9). If I want to be loved by God, I need to respect His Word and obey it always!
God loves a cheerful giver. Paul tells us that “God loves a cheerful giver” (2 Cor. 9:7). If I want to be loved by God, I need to give to Him with (and from) a cheerful heart!
Amos said, “Hate evil, love good” (5:15). We can best do that by hating what the Lord hates and loving what the Lord loves!
