 you do tonight
 be talking to the One who loves you the most.*

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

God's Love is the foundation from which your decisions about your life should be made.

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

Let us not love with just word or with tongue, but in deed and truth. ~ 1 John 3:18

 ARE AVAILABLE ON THE BACK TABLE

PRAYER IS IMPORTANT

-Ann Thompson's daughter Stacey still needs prayers so that she can navigate the path that God wants for her.. Her granddaughter Madison and her new baby Declan, are doing well. Her blood pressure is under control with the help of medication and Declan is continuing to do well in his weight gain. Finally, Ann's brother Rodney, is home from the hospital. The new medication that he has been prescribed seems to be working. He still has a way to go before everything is dialed in, but at least he is headed in the right direction. She and Kevin thank everyone for the prayers.

-Please keep the Bliss family in your prayers. Eric, Cheryl and Ryan flew back with Erin and the kids this past week. Please keep Eric's brother Bob and his family in your prayers with his recent brain cancer diagnosis.

-Please continue to keep Bob and Robin Murray in your prayers as they work through their appointments as well as their daughters appts. Bob had a checkup this past Friday and Bonnie had an important appt. also in LA that Robin took her to. Prayers for a good report for her. Crystal is preparing for her 2nd cataract surgery soon.

-Bob and Billie Jean Chadwick asked for prayers for their grandson Caden. He is struggling with time management and isn't making church a priority. Prayers his priorities change for the better. Also, for Elisha. He will soon be able to give up the protective helmet he has been wearing. Finally, for his eye as the doctors work to correct it.

-Mike Cottam asked for prayers for his friend Scott Gilbert, who was recently diagnosed with blood cancer. He started his Chemo this past week. Prayers he will tolerate it well and that it will do what is intended. Also, prayers for Mike and Shannon's friend Kevin Pickles, who had a knee replacement this past week. Prayers for a successful surgery and complete healing.

-Ethel Senior asked for prayers for a friend, Sheila Hammons, who lost her husband Terry this past week after a long battle with kidney disease and cancer. Please keep the family in your prayers. Ethel also asked for prayers for her friends Vic and Sherry Morgan, who are traveling to Arizona to see their son Tim, who is terminal with lung cancer. Prayers for safe travels and peace and comfort while they spend time with him. Finally, continued prayers for Donna and John Stewart with his cancer diagnosis and the coming days.

-Continued prayers for Ethel Senior's niece Donna and her husband John and his cancer diagnosis. Prayers as they take the next steps.

-Joanie Lehman asked for prayers for her granddaughter Aubrie. She is really struggling right now. Prayers she will rely on God and find peace with Him.

-Please keep Vickie Wadlington in your prayers as she prepares for her surgery in March. Prayers for well as Chris as he will take care of her after the surgery.

-Continued prayers for Janice Weidman as she recovers from her recent illness and hospital stay.

-Cat Aquino asked for prayers for her friend Mary, who recently lost her job. Prayers so will find a new one soon. Also, for her friend Stephanie, who just lost one of her twin sons. Prayers for her family through this loss.

ENCOURAGING WORDS

The Devine Purpose of Miracles

As we've studied the first ten chapters of Luke in our Sunday morning Bible class, we've seen that they are filled with powerful, awe-inspiring miracles. These great works were supernatural events (Acts 2:22), that could not be explained by natural law. While miracles permeate Scripture, they were not continuous throughout history, nor were they granted to all of God's people. This alone indicates a Divine purpose behind their appearance and their timing. When the Bible is allowed to define miracles, it is clear that God designed them for a specific work that has been completed.

The Bible teaches that miracles had a defined purpose. Their first purpose was revelation—to reveal all truth to the apostles and inspired writers (John 14:26). Their second purpose was confirmation—to prove that the message they preached was truly from God (John 3:2). Their third purpose was producing faith, both in those who witnessed them and in all who later read of them (John 20:30-31). Once God's message was fully revealed, fully confirmed and fully recorded, the purpose of miracles was fulfilled (and does not need to be re-confirmed).

The Bible defines the duration of miracles.

Miraculous gifts were temporary, lasting only "till we all come to the unity of the faith" (Eph. 4:13). God's revelation was given part-by-part through miraculous gifts but would cease "when that which is perfect"—the complete revelation—came (1 Cor. 13:8-10). Once the New Testament was finished, the church reached maturity, the partial gave way to the complete, and miracles fulfilled their God-given purpose.

In conclusion, Biblical miracles accomplished exactly what God intended—they revealed truth, confirmed it and produced saving faith. Today, we possess the fully revealed, fully confirmed Word of God, which "thoroughly equips" us in every good work (2 Tim. 3:16-17). While the age of miracles has ended, the power of God's written Word remains—living, active and sufficient for all who seek Him! R. Senior
