PRAYER IS IMPORTANT

-Please keep Joanie Lehman in your prayers. She continues to work through her health issues. The doctors have not resolved the underlying issue of fluid on her lungs. This is affecting every part of her life and further treatments. Prayers it is resolved soon. She is working hard to be able to make her grandson's graduation in early June.

-Ann Thompson asked for prayers for her friend Lynne Sczruba's husband John, who was recently diagnosed with pancreatic cancer. Please keep them both in your prayers.

-Lynn Nothstein asked for prayers for her co-worker Bonnie Fauchier. She is battling cancer and was not accepted to a trial treatment. Please keep her in your prayers as she continues to deal with the pain and side effects.

-Dan Donaghe sent a card thanking us for the Prayer Grams he received. He was very appreciative of the love shown to him. The card is posted in the foyer.

-Mike Bryant will have a month recovery time from his shoulder surgery that didn't go as planned. He will have a do over when he is healed. Please keep him in your prayers while he waits.

-Laura Crownover reported that her sister Linda is doing much better. The UTI and congestive heart failure have cleared up. She returned to her care facility a week ago Wednesday on a pureed diet due to the issues she is having swallowing. Please keep her in your prayers for healing.

-Holly Lueck reports that her great niece Raelynn is home now and doing better. Please continue to keep the family in your prayers.

-Jerry and Sandy Hopkin's granddaughter Trinity is home from the hospital following her heart issue. She has many physical limitations to follow for now. Please keep her and her family in your prayers.

-It was good to see Buzz House with us last week. Prayers he will continue to gain strength.

-Continue to keep Bob Bliss in your prayers as he finishes up his Chemo treatments and infusions. Keep his wife Pat in your prayers as well.

ENCOURAGING WORDS

Happy Mother's Day

A few days ago, I was going through some unused greeting cards that sit hidden in a desk drawer, and I came across a Mother's Day Card that had been purchased by Anne for either my mom or mother-in-law. While reading its message, I realized that now I have a greeting card that can never be delivered—unless U.S. postal service can find a way to get it to eternity!

The more I've reflected on this undeliverable card, the more I've realized how it mirrors so much of life. We run into situations where we realize we can never again do what we intended. No matter how much we may want to, we can't hold on to the past. A loved one dies, and we grieve that we will never again hear their comforting, loving voice. Disease creeps in and robs us of the ability to do what we once enjoyed. An accident occurs, and in the blink of an eye, we lose some function that we took for granted. The word for these situations is finality.

"Finality" is a hard word to say. In fact, we spend a great deal of energy trying to find ways around it. We play the "if only" game — "If only I try harder, it might get better;" "If only I act better, maybe there's still a chance;" "If only I pray harder, he might make it." But even prayer won't change some situations. My mother is gone, and the most fervent prayer won't bring her back. What prayer will do, though, is help me to remember that life is short, and I need to live a life of love while I can. I'm reminded that I should be grateful for what I have now because it could be gone before next year's Mother's Day rolls around!

"Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the time to come. She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue. She looks well to the ways of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her: "Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all."

...Proverbs 31:25-30

So, love now. Enjoy today. Be grateful this instant. Squeeze every drop of joy from each day. Pray hard and love deeply. And if you can, make sure you wish your mom a Happy Mother's Day!

MONTHLY POTLUCK

Our monthly potluck is next Sunday the 17th after morning worship. If you have any questions, please see Billie Jean Chadwick or Ann Thompson. A devo will directly follow the potluck and complete our services for the day.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

The actions that you choose, each and every day will add up, over the long term, to your final destination.

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

To him who overcomes, I will give the right to sit with me on my throne, just as I overcame and sat down with my Father on His throne.
~Rev.3:21
