A Venue With History

This historic brick building is located in the heart of Puyallup, and was constructed in 1924. It is a vital hub of unity for Pierce County Professional Firefighters.

Set against a beautifully maintained landscape that enhances every occasion.

A landmark space with character and warmth-perfect for intimate weddings and elevated gatherings. Station House 726 blends timeless charm with modern amenities. We believe your event should feel personal not packaged. Which is why we offer the flexibility to make it completely your own.

No matter the event, every gathering here feels personal, elevated, and unforgettable.
