The Front-Line Diva: Marlene Dietrich and the Fight Against Nazism

What compelled one of the world's most glamorous movie stars to leave Hollywood for the dangers of the front lines? Born in Germany but fiercely loyal to the Allied cause, Marlene Dietrich rejected Hitler's advances and instead devoted herself to the USO, performing for troops in some of the most perilous corners of World War II. German historian Anette Isaacs tells the remarkable story behind Dietrich's courageous choices, the risks she willingly embraced, and how an actress became one of the war's most powerful symbols of resistance and hope.

Motown by Dr. Clovis Shane LeMar

Discover the music, the message, and the stories behind one of the most recognizable brands of the 20th century. We will delve into the business and message behind the music.

Bio: Shane Lemar - Shane Le Mar broke into professional entertainment in 1986 when he was cast as a lead performer in the Howells & Howells Rock and Roll Review. Shane played the roles of Rock and Roll legends, Little Richard, Ray Charles, and Chuck Berry, where he co-headlined and opened for entertainers John Deroose and Jessie King who played the role of Elvis Presley. Shane's television career started in summer 1989 when he worked on the original Miami Vice television program in its final season as a Metro Dade Police Officer.
