

McLeod-Grant Advisors is an independent consulting firm specializing in advising women donors and philanthropic leaders on all aspects of giving, with expertise in strategy, leadership development, collaboration, governance, and more. McLeod-Grant Advisors works with a diverse range of clients, including individuals, foundations, and networks, to maximize the impact of their philanthropic efforts.

Website Access

Contact Point

Geographic Focus
United States

HQ Location
San Francisco, CA

Thematic Priorities

Philanthropic Strategy Guiding donors and leaders in developing effective giving strategies	Leadership Development Supporting philanthropic leaders in enhancing their leadership capacity	Governance Advising on governance structures to improve decision-making and accountability
---	--	--

Services Offered

Advisory Services Personalized consulting for women donors and philanthropic leaders to align their giving with their values and goals	Networking Supporting the creation and strengthening of donor networks to amplify collective impact	Strategic Guidance Assisting foundations and individuals in crafting impactful strategies for giving	Pro-Bono Engagement Providing advisory support to select organizations and initiatives
--	---	--	--

Partners and Stakeholders

- Women Donors and Philanthropic Leaders: Supporting individuals and networks of women donors to maximize their philanthropic impact
- Foundations: Advising foundations on strategy, governance, and leadership development.
- Advisory Boards and Coalitions: Providing strategic guidance to boards and coalitions focused on climate integrity, leadership, and philanthropy.
- Anonymous Individuals and Entities: Working discreetly with private clients to align their giving strategies with their values.