

OVERVIEW

The National Center for Family Philanthropy (NCFP) supports families in their philanthropic endeavors by providing resources and peer learning that help them navigate their roles as stewards of social change.

Website Access

Contact Point

Geographic Focus
United States

HQ Location
Washington, DC

Thematic Priorities

| | |
|--|---|
| Family Philanthropy Supporting families in their philanthropic endeavors | Generational Philanthropy Encouraging families to engage in philanthropy across generations |
|--|---|

Services Offered

| | | | | | |
|--|--|---|---|--|---|
| Community & Networking Providing access to a community of peers and personalized support | Dynamic Trainings Offering training programs to enhance philanthropic skills | Thought-Provoking Conversations Facilitating discussions on key topics in family philanthropy | Educational Gatherings Hosting events to promote learning and collaboration | Resource & Research Accessing individual resources and research on fundamental and emerging topics | Curated Content Collections Providing collections of resources on common topics of interest |
|--|--|---|---|--|---|

Partners and Stakeholders

- Families: Serving families involved in philanthropy.
- Family Philanthropies: Supporting family foundations in their governance, grantmaking, and operations.
- Philanthropic Advisors: Providing resources for advisors who work with philanthropic families.
- Researchers: Developing research and insights on trends in family philanthropy.

NCFP Blog