

OVERVIEW

Founded in 1995 as a project of the Rockefeller Foundation, Forward Global is a diverse, collaborative community of funders tackling today's biggest problems through learning, sharing best practices, mobilizing resources, and illustrating new forms of leadership. The community challenges inequitable systems to advance social progress by addressing root causes and activating resources to maximize social impact.

Website Access

Contact Point

Geographic Focus
Global

HQ Location
San Francisco, CA

Thematic Priorities

Global Impact Creating a world that works for all people and the planet	Transformative Change Offering a new approach to social impact that transforms systems and norms	Effective Philanthropy Making best practices common practice in philanthropy and social impact	Community & Collaboration Curating a community of funders based on trust and challenge to drive progress together
--	---	---	--

Services Offered

Programs Providing access to peer groups, global summits, and classes to help members make a significant change	Community Offering a platform for funders to connect, share practices, create results, and do more together	Knowledge Sharing Facilitating the sharing of best practices among members and curating resources to support action
--	--	--

Partners and Stakeholders

- Funders: Engaging individuals and organizations to move resources for social impact.
- Global Community: Aiming to benefit all people and the planet through effective philanthropy, business, and investment.
- Members: Collaborating with peers to create significant change and shape the future of philanthropy and investment.

News & Resources | Forward Global