

OVERVIEW

A philanthropy advising firm founded in 2012, Building Impact Partners works with high-capacity donors, foundations, and changemakers to catalyze systemic social impact through strategic philanthropy.

Website Access

Contact Point
briana.foley@buildingimpact.co

Geographic Focus
United States

HQ Location
New York

Thematic Priorities

Systems Change & Equity	Education & Workforce Development	Advocacy & Social Innovation	Learning & Leadership
Centering equity and community in philanthropic strategy	Designing and launching initiatives like summer learning labs	Launching new nonprofits or campaigns	Focused on strengthening philanthropic leadership, especially through equity lenses

Services Offered

Advising	High-Impact Grantmaking	Convening & Facilitation	Ecosystem Analysis	Leadership Coaching
Strategic partnership for visioning, planning, generational strategies, and execution support	Program design, initiation, evaluation, and management—including microgrants to large systems-change efforts.	Structured gatherings for peer exchange, brainstorming, and collaboration.	Mapping community structures to align stakeholder efforts.	Individual and cohort coaching; signature “Meaningful Giving Guide” certification through Advisor Accelerator program

Partners and Stakeholders

- Individual philanthropists & family foundations: Engaged as clients in strategy and grantmaking.
- Nonprofits & community groups: Partners in implementing grant strategies.
- Peer advisors & advisors-in-training: Through Advisors Accelerator.

Insights & Resources - Building Impact Partners