A Halloween-themed illustration featuring a large, bright full moon in the center. The background is a gradient of orange and yellow, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. Silhouettes of bats are flying in the sky. In the foreground, there are several jack-o'-lanterns with carved faces, some of which are lit from within. A graveyard with several tombstones and a black cat perched on a tombstone is visible. Bare trees and a spiderweb are also present. The text 'TRICK OR TREAT' is written in large, bold, blue letters across the moon.

HALLOWEEN HISTORY

On October 31, Americans celebrate Halloween. Halloween means “holy” (hallow) “evening” (een). This is the evening before the Christian holy day of All Saints Day. On All Saints Day Christians remember the Saints but Halloween is even older than Christianity.

Before Christianity, people in Europe believed that on October 31 ghost of dead people came back. To scare the ghosts, people dressed like devils and were very noisy. They also made big fires to keep the ghost away. Later people did not believe in ghosts, but they kept the day of Halloween for fun.

Immigrants come from Europe to America and brought with them the custom of Halloween. Halloween has some strange symbols. One symbol is the Jack-o-lantern in the window, this is to scare the ghosts. People cut a face in the pumpkins, then they put a candle inside of it.

Today, in the United States, Halloween is very popular with the children. They wear masks and special costumes. They want to look like skeletons and ghosts.

Jack-o'-lantern usually look scary!
