One great way to strengthen your prayer life is to practice praying Scripture—or the principles found in Scripture—back to God. Use the prompts below to reflect on what passages from the Gospel of Matthew teach you about God and how you should respond to what He shows you. Feel free to make copies of this handout and to use it each week to identify a verse or two you can pray back to God. You also can find QR codes in the Personal Study Guide that suggest prayer passages for each session.
