Job Title

Luxury Travel Advisor

Location

Remote

Client

Undisclosed

Job Summary

Our client is launching a boutique luxury travel startup focused on delivering highly curated, white-glove travel experiences for discerning clients around the world — and we're looking for a Luxury Travel Advisor who's excited to build something from the ground up.

This isn't a traditional agency role. You'll have real ownership, direct client impact, and the opportunity to shape processes in a fast-growing company.

Responsibilities

- Design and coordinate complex, luxury, multi-destination itineraries
- Book air, hotels, and services using GDS systems (Amadeus, Sabre, Galileo, etc.)
- Be the trusted point of contact before and during travel
- Manage urgent changes, cancellations, family emergencies, and global contingencies
- Work closely with airlines, hotels, and international partners to protect the client experience

Qualifications

- Experience in luxury travel advising
- Strong GDS expertise
- Excellent English communication skills (written & spoken)
- Calm under pressure and solution-driven
- Comfortable being available when emergencies arise
- Excited by startup environments and building processes from scratch
- Excellent english communication skills
